

CHILDREN AND YOUTH (BACK) IN MEXICO

A film by Ben Donnellon, Tatyana Kleyn, William Perez & Rafael Vásquez
Art and Graphic Design by Marcela Erazo

Tatyana Kleyn, Ed.D.
The City College of New York
tkleyn@ccny.cuny.edu

* Starting with a Story

- * Highlight the people and stories behind return migration
- * Show the diversity of transborder students: US-and Mexican born
- * Illustrate how immigration policies – of the absence of them – impact people on both sides of the border
- * Develop bilingual educational resources to be used by educators in Mexico, the U.S. and beyond
- * Create policy and pedagogy changes in both nations

* Rationale

* Identity

* Identity cont.

*Languaging

* Schooling

* Suggestions

- * A bilingual (Spanish-English) secondary curriculum with:
  - * Topic & film introduction lesson
  - * Identity lesson
  - * Languages lesson
  - * Economics lesson
  - * Policies lesson
  - * Final Project Options

* Film & Curriculum
available on-line:
unavidathefilm.com